Electronic Student Portfolios: Using an Engaging Teaching, Learning and Assessment Tool of The Future! In Today's Classroom

A practical, hands-on workshop designed to show teachers how easy it can be to incorporate a student-centred intranet using Eduweb into regular classroom teaching, learning, assessment and reporting.

We will examine...

- How the intranet can be used to facilitate learning in line with mandatory syllabus outcomes including ICT skills across the curriculum
- Basic Front Page and Netscape as a web authoring tool and the backbone of Eduweb
- How curriculum-based templates can be developed by teachers and pushed out to all students' web pages with ease
- How to incorporate student self-assessment and teacher assessment in EduWeb, creating impressive electronic student portfolios
-and more!

Facilitator: Paul Clark (0410 582 138)
Technology Advisor
